KPOP Amino Available: iOS Android KPOP Amino is a free app dedicated to all kinds of Korean entertainment. However, the approach of this app is somewhat different from the others. Instead of providing you with songs or videos, KPOP Amino's main focus is to give you a community to discuss your favorite Korean entertainment. Sure, there are also plenty of great media outlets, such as photos, GIFs, memes and blog posts about music, celebrities, culture, fashion and language, but what makes KPOP Amino stand out are all fans. You can share your own fan art, post about your favorite singers or celebrities, and participate in special fan projects. And while you'll have plenty of opportunities to learn more about K-pop and discuss your favorites, you could also befriend a native speaker who shares your interests. So, you could set up an exchange of conversations to talk about K-pop one-on-one. Mubeat Available: iOS ? Android A free app with K-pop videos and no ads? Yes, please! Mubeat allows you to stream popular K-pop videos for free, all without having to interrupt your learning with annoying ads. The videos come from three Korean tv channels: KBS, MBC and SBS. They feature popular artists, including BTS, Red Velvet and EXO, so you'll have plenty of great visualization ahead of you. You can even follow your favorite artists so you don't miss any of their latest videos. Not sure what to listen to? Regularly updated charts will help you see what's hot right now. And if interacting with other fans is more in your alley, Mubeat also lets you share images and posts with the community. Coverstar Available: iOS Sometimes a good cover can be even better (or at least more interesting) than the original. If you can't enough K-pop covers, you'll definitely want to try the Coverstar app. Coverstar is a free application that allows you to view the K-pop covers loaded by the user. But that's not all! You can also upload your own covers, which is the perfect opportunity to get into some Korean practice while channeling your inner pop star. K-POP Korean Music Radio Available: Available. Don't you like the burden of having to choose what to listen to? K-POP Korean Music Radio can remove some of the weight from your shoulders. Just select a radio station and start listening! K-POP Korean Music Radio has more than 30 radio stations that play K-pop. If you want to sleep listening to your favorite songs, the app even allows you to set a shutdown timer. As an added bonus, there's news, so you'll never have to fall behind on the latest K-pop news. This app is free, but has ads. However, you can remove ads for a fee. Offline Kpop lyrics Available: Android This app has no music. He doesn't have any videos. It doesn't allow you to upload videos of yourself singing your heart. But this free app could still be one of your favorite apps that you'll ever download. Why? It has lyrics...many and many letters. You can search by artist or song to find the material you're looking for. Once you find what you want, you'll have access to the original letter, Romanized version, and English translation. If the app doesn't have the letter you're looking for, you can even request them. Plus, Kpop Lyrics Offline, as you'd probably guess, works offline, so you can study your favorite lyrics the next time you're on a plane or stuck in a dead zone. So go ahead and enjoy your passion for K-pop. These eight apps will give you all the songs you need to get your Korean skills in tune. If you liked this post, something tells me you'll love FluentU, the best way to learn Korean with real-world videos. Experience Korean immersion online! Online!
